

DAVID MORRIS
PRODUCT REVIEW CONSULTANT
INTERSTATE INSURANCE PRODUCT REGULATION COMMISSION

David Morris joined the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission ("IIPRC") as a Product Review Consultant on January 1, 2008. The Product Review Consultant's primary responsibility is the review of all products filed with the IIPRC, including review for compliance with the IIPRC Uniform Standards and all applicable IIPRC Operating Procedures.

Prior to joining the IIPRC, David was a Life and Health Analyst with the Nebraska Department of Insurance. He had responsibility for the review and approval of individual and group life insurance and annuity products. From June 2007 through December 2007, David also acted as the IIPRC's interim product examiner working part-time on secondment from IIPRC member state Nebraska.

Prior to joining the Nebraska Department, David was employed at the Lincoln, Nebraska home office of a life and health insurance company. During his eleven years with the company, David served as Legal Assistant to the company's General Counsel, as a Compliance Assistant, and finally as Senior Compliance Analyst. David has experience with all aspects of life insurance and annuity administration with an emphasis in product development, forms compliance, and state filing functions.

David is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology. He also received a degree in Paralegal Studies from Nebraska Wesleyan University. David has earned the FLMI, AIRC, and ACS designations from the Life Management Institute. David is a member of the Insurance Regulatory Examiners Society and the Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals.
