

ANNE MARIE NARCINI
REGULATORY CONSULTANT
INTERSTATE INSURANCE PRODUCT REGULATION COMMISSION

Anne Marie is the regulatory consultant for the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission (IIPRC). She provides support to the Product Standards Committee during its consideration of new or updated Uniform Standards by researching and reporting on areas of concern and conducting outreach to member regulators and interested parties to enhance input and participation in the uniform standards development process. Through interaction with the IIPRC office, the Product Standards Committee, the Legislative Committee, Consumer Advisory Committee, Industry Advisory Committee, member states and company representatives, Anne Marie prepares recommendations for enhancements to the uniform standards development process and prioritization of development of new Uniform Standards that have been requested to be developed or updated.

Prior to joining the IIPRC in February of 2014, for more than 25 years, Anne Marie served in various investigative and managerial positions within the Office of Consumer Protection at the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance. Anne Marie established New Jersey's Market Analysis Unit and prior to leaving the Department, she was Chief of Market Regulation, responsible for the management of the Department's market analysis and market conduct activities as well as producer licensing, insurance education and a department-wide consumer call center.

Throughout her tenure with the New Jersey Department, Anne Marie has been active in NAIC market regulation and producer licensing task forces and working groups. She served for many years as Chair of the Producer Licensing (EX) Working Group and from 2011 through 2013, she also was the Chair of the Market Actions Working Group (MAWG).

Anne Marie graduated with a Bachelor of Science from The College of New Jersey, obtained her Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation in 1993, Certified Insurance Examiner (CIE) in 1996, Market Conduct Manager (MCM) in 2008, and Senior Professional in Insurance Regulation (SPIR) in 2012. She is an active member of the Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP), the Securities and Insurance Licensing Administrators (SILA), and the Insurance Regulatory Examiners Society (IRES).
